Switzer, Newcomb, Hayes Claim Texas Roadhouse West Kentucky Open Crowns

PGA Tour Latin America star Patrick Newcomb (Benton, KY) won the professional division of the West Kentucky Open for the second time in an exciting playoff against Seth Arthur (Brookport, IL) and Joey Mayo (Paducah, KY). Newcomb fired a two-day total of 9 under par and then chipped in for birdie on the first playoff hole to win $1750. Arthur and Mayo collected $750 each and Duncan McCormick (Evanville, IN) won $250 for 4th.

Tadd Switzer (Hopkinsville, KY) finished at -4 (140) to claim the amateur championship by one shot over Riley Klingelberg (Murietta, CA (141) and 2 shots over Irvin Cobb Champion Justin Johns (South Fulton - 142).

Allen Hayes (Kuttawa, KY - 144) lapped the field to win the Senior Amateur Crown besting Eddie Trevathan (Gleason TN 151) and Mickey Brockwell (Fulton, KY 151) by 7 shots.

88 players competed in this year's West Kentucky Open. But the tournament's true success is probably best measured by the comments, letters, and emails that we received from the players. Many considered the WKO to be the most professionally run tournament they played all year. The Drake Creek staff would like to extend our thanks to our member volunteers who helped make everything run so well! We couldn't do it without you!
